OUR ALMA MATER . . . . . .

. . . . A Source of Pride — — A Symbol of Success

REMEMBER . . .

. . . that valiant school spirit, that unquenchable pride in Libbey, that desire to make our school tops? This past year we have filled our minds with new knowledge about life and the universe, but high school days can not last forever; the seniors graduate and the underclassmen move up to the next crossroad on the path of life. Now we are as one, blending our personalities to make up the student body of Libbey High School, but we are eagerly waiting to cross the bridge to an older and wiser world. We hope that on this journey the 1961 Edelian may serve as a momento of an exciting and exhilarating year.

who will "march ever onward" to victory and fame. Page 24 who display the true Cowboy spirit in all their actions. Page 56 which point the way to better understanding and cooperation. Page 88

MRS. PAULINE BURTON

Next fall, when the classes at Libbey reconvene, a distinguished and energetic faculty member who has served her profession for nearly forty years will have retired, leaving with us a memory as vivid and expressive as was her life.

The honors Mrs. Pauline Burton has received throughout her career testify to her high standing among teachers across our land. She was one of twelve instructors in the United States to be invited to Washington to attend a conference at the Federal Security Agency, and in 1939 she was awarded the Hildesheim Vase of the Ohio Classical Conference.

Not only has Mrs. Burton received much recognition, but also her students have been complimented for their attainment under her guidance. Replicas of ancient Roman architecture constructed by her pupils have been displayed in the Toledo Museum of Art, and pictures of these models now appear in textbooks by Ullman and Henry. In 1959 Mrs. Burton acted as a consultant for the Toledo Flower Show, where the Libbey section received special commendation.

A sincere desire to revitalize the classics throughout the nation has been evidenced by her contributions to widely-read papers and professional magazines. Active in numerous organizations, she has served on the Board of Directors of the Toledo Federation of Teachers for seven years and has been chairman of the Public Relations Committee of the American Classical League since 1946.

During her truly remarkable life, Mrs. Burton has inspired all who knew her by her devotion not only to teaching Latin but also to fostering integrity, perseverance, and honest effort. To bid "farewell" to one whose myriad talents have enriched our school for so long is indeed difficult. We, the class of 1961, wish to echo the sentiments of the entire student body in expressing our admiration, respect, and affection for Mrs. Pauline Emerson Burton.

"A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell when his influence stops."

—Henry Adams

MRS. FRIEDA ULLMAN

In Memoriam

If spreading cheer and happiness into the lives of others brings satisfaction to us, surely Mrs. Ullman led a happy life. For even during her serious illness, many who came to comfort went away cheered by her indomitable courage. Few people possess to the same degree that compelling personality which enables them to radiate their philosophy to those about them and to bring out the best traits in others. To those of us who knew her, Mrs. Ullman's sincerity, understanding, and deep interest in our welfare will never be forgotten.

Truly a part of her life remains still—with her beloved family to whom she was devoted, with her former students who learned more because of her patience, and with every Y-Teen to whom she imparted her warmth and sincerity.

To lose a friend forever is truly sad and tragic. Those who knew Fred Kirk, Dave Wyper, and Tim Perry now realize this sorrow. Although they have left this world of reality to live in the realm of eternity, with us their memory still remains.

Fred's ready smile and cheerfulness brought light into many hearts. His fun-loving manner, along with the sincerity he possessed, made him loved and admired by all.

Dave's good-naturedness caused him to be popular with all his classmates. Albeit serious and reserved, he possessed all the qualities of an active, fun-loving boy.

Although Tim spent much of his high school life in a hospital, he remained cheerful and energetic. Possessing a keen interest in nature and the out-of-doors, he nevertheless had a deep desire to learn and a willingness to work.

To know these boys was to like them; to lose them, a sudden tragedy. To the families and friends of these three seniors, we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

"I think of death as some delightful journey
That I shall take when all my tasks are done."
—Ella Wilcox

ADMINIS

People the world over admire in a man,
A devotion to duty, a vision to plan.
We have such a person guiding our schools;
Integrity and patience serve as his tools.
His foresight and wisdom, his scholarly air
Explain why into his hands parents place our care.

These golden virtues impress all who meet him;
Though his ideals are high, his goals aren't dim
But bright and shining, hopeful and sure
Making our lives more clean and more pure.
For each of us to thank you would be difficult it's true;
With sincere appreciation, Mr. Dunsmore, we thank you.

PHILO C. DUNSMORE
Superintendent

With pride Mr. Rusie congratulates the unusually large number of National Merit Scholarship finalists:
Row 1—LeAnne Tefft, Pam Sun, Rachel Weber, Margretta Lee, Michael McCoy.
Row 2—William Clemens, Douglas Feiock, Robert Pollock, Stephen Moran.

TRATION

Throughout our years we've shared our fears,
Our joys, our fun, our sorrows,
With a friend, a loyal friend
Who lives for our tomorrows.
His understanding nature strives
To aid us when we're sad,
For his patience and his warmness
We like to think of him as "Dad."

He's someone who can guide us through
This torrid four-year whirl,
Giving time, advice, and energy
To a troubled boy or girl.
His jovial good-naturedness,
His devotion, deep and true,
Explain why all of Libbey say,
"Mr. Rusie, we love you."

It went off like clockwork.

Let's all sing like the birdies sing.

Higher, higher, step a little higher!!

Three Tommy Tuckers sing for their suppers.

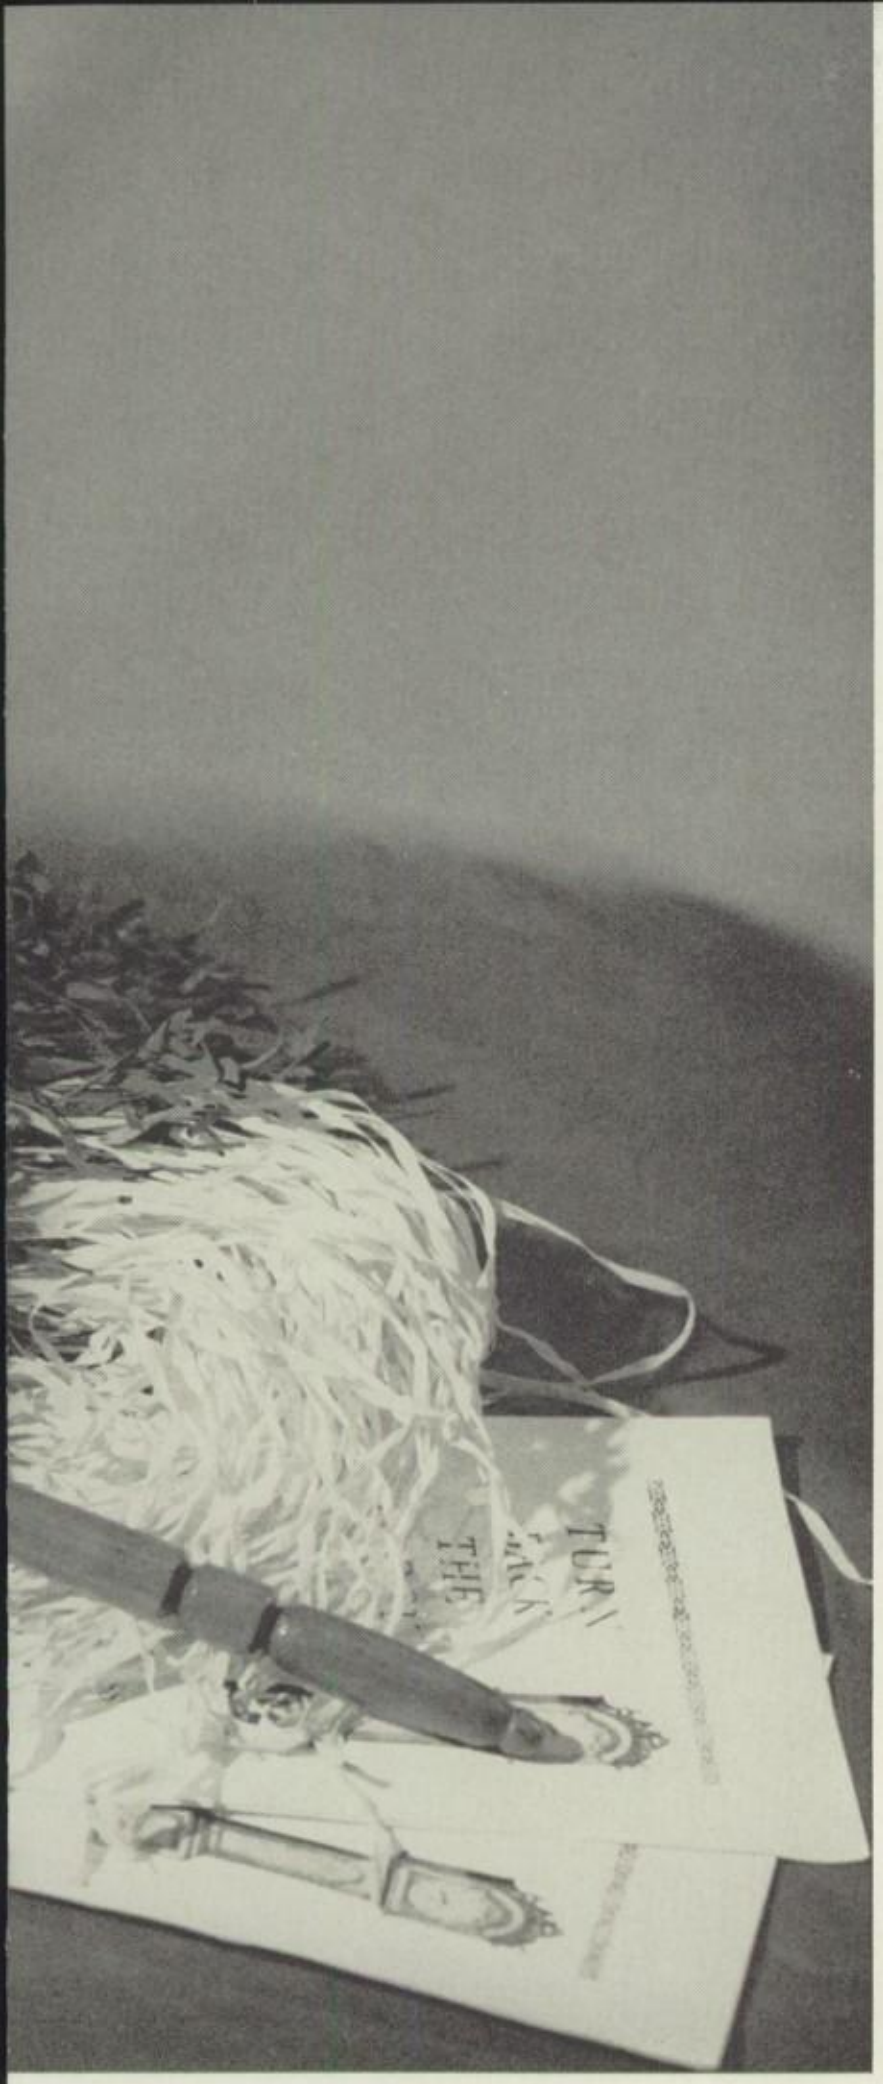
SERVICE AND



SOCIABILITY

One of our more serious moments.

A cherished memory — the crowning of our football queen.

Our pert and pretty drum majorette shows her marching form.

Our cheerful, charming cheerleaders.

Our merry marching majorettes.

The Phils and Zets enjoy a moment of sociability after their inductions.

And the band—whoops, the orchestra—played on.

Student Council

"Service to Libbey"is the motto of our efficient 1960-1961 Student Council. This group of students who exemplify high scholastic ability, popularity among their classmates, and, above all, a willingness to work for the school have had two main goals this year. First, they have striven to maintain the best possible relationship between the administration and the student body. Secondly, they have endeavored to promote good citizenship, school spirit, and honesty.

Among the many activities sponsored by the organization this year were the Clean-up Campaign, the Magazine Drive, the Area Sportsmanship Contest, the football queen election, and the Teens Against Polio Drive. As social projects members promoted the Area Student Council Dance and sponsored a homecoming dance after the Libbey-Central football game. Through the Council's initiative, Libbey's halls remained decorated from the beginning to the end of the school year.

Under the able guidance of their advisers, Miss Shirley Haney and Mr. Loy Rusie, the members of the Student Council have left us many never-to-be-forgotten memories of a scintillating year.

Although the publication of the yearbook has caused us many an anxious moment, we are truly sorry to see the pleasures and vexations of publishing the 1961 Edelian fade into oblivion. From the preliminary sketches and vague ideas to the last minute handling of details, each member of the staff has endeavored to do his part in making this book a success. Never shall we forget the flurry of planning layouts, the cold-weather solicitation of ads, nor the heated frenzy of hurriedly preparing and checking the galleys. But all difficulties seemed inconsequential when this memoir of our golden year was presented at the Senior Banquet. In the future as you leaf through the pages of the 1961 Edelian, we sincerely hope that it will recall for you many treasured "MOMENTS TO REMEMBER."

Crystal

With an eye to the keyhole and an ear to the ground, the Crystal reporters, caught up in the whirlwind of newspaper activities, again rushed to meet their monthly deadlines. The sound of busily clacking typewriters in Room 215 let us know that the staff once more was reporting in a seemingly endless succession of articles the many and varied activities at Libbey. Each club function, each sports event, and each honor awarded a Libbey student was aptly reported. Along with timely editorials, cartoons, and humorous columns, these articles gave the Crystal its unique sparkle and freshness. Under the competent guidance of Mrs. Betty Bolger, Crystal adviser, the editor and her assistants worked indefatigably to produce an accurate and entertaining record of the news which not only describes Libbey but is Libbey.

National

Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service — these are the noble ideals of our National Honor Society. To be honored by membership in this organization is one of the highest goals a Libbey student can attain. This year fifty-one seniors and twenty-seven juniors were awarded this distinction. To inspire the underclassmen to strive for scholastic achievement, National Honor presented certificates to freshmen and gold pins to sophomores who ranked at the top of their respective classes.

In October members of this club exemplified their aim to serve others by efficiently supervising the junior and the senior class elections. This organization also provided a basket for a needy family at Christmas. The scholastic activities of the year were highlighted by the College Information Program and the National Honor Quiz Show at which Libbey's representatives, Rachel Weber, Doug Feiock, Steve Moran, and Bob Pollock, successfully challenged the Waite team. Proceeds from this contest and from the ever-popular "Beat the Clock Program" were used to finance scholarships for deserving senior members.

Socially, the club began another active year last fall with a roast at Michael McCoy's. In December members attended a showing of the renowned movie Ben Hur and during Christmas vacation enjoyed a skating party after which a potluck was held at the home of Lynn Gail Walker. At still another get-together, the group celebrated Washington's birthday with a beatnik party at Bob Pollock's. Throughout the year, they heard lectures by several interesting speakers.

The final "moments to remember" of an eventful year were the lively beach party at Bay Point and the banquet at which the prophecy for the senior members was revealed.

Periclean Literary Society

"To discover and encourage original talent, to create enthusiasm for scholarship, and to promote enlightened leadership" are the main objectives of the Periclean Literary Society. Attractively attired in their gold shirtwaist dresses, members enthusiastically lived up to their motto "Secundus Nulli." Having fun while making money, the Peries sponsored a car wash, sold shakers, candy, cherry pies, and festive Christmas decorations. Under the guidance of their vivacious advisers, Mrs. Mericle and Mrs. Bockey, members served tea at the February teachers' meeting and sent a Christmas basket to a needy family. New members were received into the club at an impressive induction which was held at the Park Lane Hotel. Social events of the year included a roaring twenties party, the annual pizza dinner, the Tri-Lit dance, and the spring banquet which honored the graduating members. Long will every Perie treasure the memories of this successful and happy year.

Philalethean Literary Society

As the activities of the year fade into fond memories, many happy and vivid moments will live on in the hearts of the Phils. Beginning the year enthusiastically, Phils sold football pencils, candy, and baked goods; later they sponsored a car wash. With the proceeds, the Phils awarded two scholarships at graduation.

Combining efforts with other clubs, the Phils decorated the lobby and sponsored the DeVilbiss mass meeting. For service projects, they operated a booth for Open House, decorated the cafeteria at Christmas time, served a teachers' tea, contributed to the United Appeal, and sent a Christmas basket and clothes to a needy family. The literary highlight of the year was the March meeting, at which the Phils sponsored a Tri-Lit program featuring an interesting book review by Miss Alice Huebner. The tremendously successful Sadie Hawkins Dance, the Tri-Lit roast and dance, and the never-to-be forgotten spring banquet honoring senior members completed the social activities of the year.

Zetalethean Literary Society

From the opening day in September to the final "good-bye" in June, Zets were leaders at Libbey. Again a Zet, Dianne Pasch, was homecoming queen; and "Zeke Zet", our symbol of victory, presided over the fall gridiron festivities. Long will the girls remember their extracurricular service projects. In cooperation with other clubs, members decorated the halls, served tea at a teachers' meeting, and made a booth for Open House. They also "adopted" seventeen boys from the Children's Home and, at Christmas, hung the traditional wreath and helped a needy family. Social affairs included the Tri-Lit roast and formal, a spring party, and the annual Zet banquet. To earn scholarship money, Zets held a card party, sold tags for the Thanksgiving game, made pop corn balls, and sponsored a sox hop featuring the Coachmen Trio. Surely we'll never forget those peppy girls in red and black distinctions querying, "Devil cards, anyone?"

Forum Literary Society

This year the Forum, under the capable leadership of Mr. Dixon, enjoyed, according to the senior members, the best year ever. Attired in their new camel-colored vests, the members showed their desire to be of service to Libbey by engaging in many projects. Through the efforts of this organization, flags for the eight city league high schools were secured and flown over our gridiron during each football game. Co-operating with the student council, members helped to decorate the main lobby. In addition to these activities, they also enjoyed a fall roast, a splash party, the traditional senior banquet, and the unforgettable and hilarious basketball game with the Q.D.'s. A scholarship to an outstanding senior boy was made available from the proceeds of the annual spaghetti dinner, the "gastronomical highlight" of the year. Through their charitable activities, the Forum members learned that service to others is indeed its own reward.

Quill and Dagger Literary Society

As the year's activities faded swiftly past us, it was again the Q.D.'s who were at hand to serve Libbey whenever the need arose. In their orange and black sweaters, they will long be remembered for their willingness and cooperation. The refreshments sold by the Q.D.'s added " a certain something" to the Lima trip, making it more memorable and enjoyable. In addition, they successfully sponsored a homecoming queen candidate, Dianne Pasch. Also as the Yuletide season approached, the Q.D.'s generously gave a Christmas basket to a needy family in our locality. At the annual football banquet, the club presented to Ron Olah the rotating trophy for team leadership. With a car wash, a dinner dance honoring the seniors, and an annual spring roast, the Quill and Dagger Literary Society rounded out a successful and profitable season under the leadership of Mr. Miley, Mr. Gilmore, and a capable corps of officers.

Utamara Art Society

The Utamara Art Society completed its second successful year of service by contributing its time and talent to the advancement of Libbey's appreciation of art. The members decorated the gym for the Cowboy Roundup and made a standing offer to prepare posters for any group that desired them. Money-making activities included a bake sale and the selling of tags for the Waite basketball game. Assisted by Mrs. Kenney and Mrs. Sebold, their vivacious advisers, the Utamara Art Society concluded their memorable year with a fascinating field trip to Greenfield Village.

Junior Red Cross

Under the able guidance of their adviser, Miss Virginia May, the members of the Junior Red Cross this year again achieved their goal of serving humanity locally, nationally, and internationally. The club sent a hundred gift boxes to the needy children overseas, provided holiday tray favors for local institutions and collected hundreds of pieces of costume jewelry with which they tried to cheer the patients of the Toledo State Hospital. By these benevolent activities, members of the club certainly fulfilled their motto, "We help others by serving."

Hi-Y

"To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community, the high standards of Christian character" is the primary purpose of the Hi-Y. If the members can apply these ideals in all their numerous activities, the ultimate goal towards which they strive will have been attained. In addition to fulfilling their main goal, the Hi-Y will be remembered for their many successful social events which included the hayride, the roast, the buffet at which their mothers were entertained, the induction to which their fathers were invited, and the spring banquet. Under the adept counseling of Mr. Needles and Mr. Zimmerman, their advisers, the boys are creating a foundation of character and responsibility on which they will mold their future lives. In the past year the boys willingly devoted time, ability, and energy to secure the accomplishments of their club. The learners of today will be the leaders of tomorrow; in them we may place our trust.

Libbey Christian Youth

Under the leadership of Mr. Elmer E. Kirsch, the members of Libbey Christian Youth have lived up to their purpose, "to grow in knowledge and love toward God through a personal relationship with his Son, and to bring others to the knowledge of this relationship through the sharing of God's word, the Bible." The study program for the year included two interesting speakers, a Biblical film, "Jordon Valley," and slides depicting the Christmas story.

The fall activities included selling pencils and the traditional Thanksgiving mums and contributing to the football banquet, at which members of the Y-Teens also served. At Christmas time they donated a basket of food to a needy family and cheerfully decorated the main lobby. To climax the holiday season, the Senior Y-Teens held a banquet honoring their mothers. sored the inspirational Lenten services which we all so fondly remember.

Although the club dedicated much of its time to service, there was still time for fun and relaxation. At one meeting, Mr. Charles Robinson spoke on the little-known facts concerning football. In cooperation with the other Y-Teen Clubs in the city, they participated in the "Beats, Bongos, and Bermudas" hop, an ice skating party, and a formal dance. A banquet in the spring concluded a memorable year for the members of this organization. Truly the Senior Y-Teens, under the vivacious guidance of Miss Ruth Allen, their adviser, have practiced their purpose of realizing in everyday life those ideals of personal and social living to which we, as Christians, are dedicated.

Among the activities this year were a splash party at the Y.M.C.A., a mother-daughter tea in the spring, and a sock hop which was held at the downtown Y.W.C.A.; the members also participated in a city-wide Y-Teen skating party. Service projects which helped further their interests in others included sending a Christmas basket to the needy, shipping CARE packages, and establishing a scholarship fund.

Sophomore Y-Teens

Giving sophomore girls the opportunity to develop socially and spiritually is the main motivation of the Libbey Sophomore Y-Teens. By becoming active in a club as challenging as the Y-Teens, each girl is given the opportunity to do her utmost to prepare for the greater responsibilities of later life. The possibilities are great when the potential is good, and the Y-Teens strive to prove this by encouraging girls to assume responsibility and develop good character through group participation. As their purpose states, they also strive to promote better understanding among the members and to extend a helping hand to those in need.

To accomplish their goal this year, the members carried out a comprehensive program of activities and service projects under the guidance of Mrs. Foose and Mrs. Morgan. The industrious Y-Teens included in these projects crossword puzzles which they sent to the Red Cross. These were then distributed to older men and women in hospitals and rest homes. During the Christmas season, the girls also gave aid to a needy family, thereby discovering the satisfaction one receives from sharing what he has with someone less fortunate than he. By giving the boys and girls at the Children's Home colorfully decorated baskets, the members helped them to have a happier Easter.

It is quite impossible for a large club such as Y-Teens to function smoothly without supplementary funds. Accordingly, the members held two bake sales, the products of which were greatly enjoyed by their patrons. Bringing the successful year to a close was an enjoyable banquet, at which the officers for the coming year were installed.

Libbey Leaders

Under the competent guidance of their gym instructors, the Libbey Leaders Club has given many vivacious girls the opportunity to participate in intramural games which increase skill and promote good sportsmanship. With money earned from two successful brownie sales, the group also endeavored to serve others by sending Care packages overseas. To add zest to their monthly meetings, they gave both a pizza party and a Christmas party and, later in the spring, got "in the swim of things" at the Y.W.C.A.

Although not completely organized until January, the Freshman Y-Club had a very successful and rewarding year. This organization, one of the few clubs to which any freshman girl may belong, enables the girls to participate fully and enthusiastically in the activities of Libbey. Beginning their semester program with social activity, the members enjoyed an exciting splash party at the Y.W.C.A. Long will each girl remember the thrill she experienced when the entire membership of this organization attended Cinerama soon after it was first brought to Toledo last fall.

In order to further the goal of the club, "to build a fellowship of girls devoted to the ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians," the Y-Club participated in several service projects as well as social activities. In the spring they enthusiastically prepared two-hundred Easter baskets which were presented to the children at Saint Anthony's Orphanage. In addition to their other activities, the Y-Club held a successful bake sale to augment the funds in their treasury.

With the assistance of their energetic advisers, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Lindeman, the Y-Club has demonstrated the Christian fellowship and leadership which is so essential for the continued growth of understanding and character. As seniors, the members will recall with pride the active role they played during their freshman year in learning to emulate Christian standards of conduct.

F. B. L. A.

The main highlight on the F.B.L.A. calendar this year was the state convention, held in the Commodore Perry Hotel. Here Libbey was ably represented by the following: Karen Fair, who won first prize in spelling; Sue Erdmann, who was awarded third prize in the speech contest; and Darla Swanson and Judy Enck, who won third place in the "Build Your Future with Business" project. Linda Geraldo, the club secretary, achieved additional honors for Libbey by brilliantly presiding as Mistress of Ceremonies at the convention banquet.

Nevertheless, F.B.L.A. wasn't too busy to forget its service projects, such as a faculty tea and a booth at Open House, or its charities, United Appeal and Christmas Cheer. The girls earned money for these projects by their potato chip sales, a very successful candy drive just before Halloween, and the sale of shorthand dictionaries to business students who desired to increase their vocabularies.

Throughout the year many social events were interspersed with business routine. The September induction, at which thirty-five students became new members, was the first item on the agenda for the year. Then came the Halloween party held at the South Side Y.M.C.A., the Christmas party at school, and an informative program at which Mrs. Houser showed the members her fascinating slides of France. The social year closed with the annual spring roast and spring banquet.

The advisers who did such a commendable job of guiding the club in its many and varied activities were Mrs. Houser, Mrs. Moody, Mr. Good, Mrs. Morgan, Miss Allen, Miss Haney, Mr. Spice, Mrs. Foose, Mr. Needles, Mrs. Bolger and Mrs. Flatz, department chairman.

With mingled emotions the seniors leave this worthwhile club, but they are confident that the newly-elected officers will carry on its fine traditions and uphold their motto, "We learn to serve and serve to learn."

Familiar to Libbey students during the first few weeks of school was the cry, "Buy your blue and gold Libbey book covers now!" Proceeds from this, the first and foremost moneymaking project of Libbey's Future Teachers of America, were used for scholarships which were awarded to worthy senior members of the club.

Membership in the F.T.A. is a stepping stone to the ultimate goal of these students—a career in the field of teaching. An ever-increasing American population has created the need for more well-trained teachers to supplement the inadequate number of those qualified to guide today's children. Therefore, the F.T.A. members conscientiously pursuing their motto, "to interest good students in becoming teachers", engaged in many activities whose aims were to encourage good students to enter teaching as a career. One interesting program featured a former Libbeyite and F.T.A. member who related to members the pleasures and difficulties which student teachers encounter. Service projects for the year included a tea preceding one of the teachers' meetings, a bake sale, a booth at Open House, and carols sung at Christmas for the patients of the Toledo State Hospital. The year's activities were brought to a fitting conclusion by an impressive spring banquet at which the seniors were honored and officers for the following year were installed.

F. N. A.

The Libbey Chapter of the Future Nurses of America proudly takes as its motto "Service to others and the stimulation of interest in nursing as a profession." In addition to studying the opportunities for service in the field of nursing, the members participated in many activities. Under the inspiring guidance of their adviser, Mrs. Florence Tanner, the F.N.A. sponsored a bake sale, collected tax stamps, and for the first time sold candied apples.

To further the attainment of their goal, the members of this club toured Mercy Hospital and gleaned many interesting facts about their chosen career from both the student nurses and the registered nurses. Long will the social activities of the Christmas season remain in the memories of these girls. After honoring their mothers with a spring tea, the Future Nurses bade farewell to the senior members and wished them success in their chosen career of "serving others."

Alchemist Society

This year, under the resourceful guidance of Mrs. Bowers and Mr. Baechler, Libbey reorganized its Alchemist Society. Endeavoring to fulfill the aim of their organization, "to stimulate the students' interest in chemistry", the Alchemists listened to talks by various prominent people in the field of science and visited some of the leading industrial establishments throughout the city. As a newly-formed club they were unable to undertake all the activities that the new members proposed; nevertheless, they did conduct a bake sale and a candy sale at Easter and enjoyed a spring picnic at which the officers for the next year were installed.

In the future the Libbey Alchemist Society hopes to contribute much toward making high school students interested in the possibilities of science in our modern age.

Encouraging interest in the civilization of ancient Rome and creating an incentive for high grades in Latin were again the worthwhile objectives of the Classical Honor Society, the original chapter of the National Junior Classical League. This year the group became a charter member of the newly formed Maumee Valley Junior Classical League, and sponsored the traditional trip to the University of Michigan. Under the inspiring leadership of Mrs. Pauline Burton, the members fulfilled the desire for excellence which they propose in their motto, "Scientia Arx Saeculorum," "Knowledge, the Citadel of the Ages."

La Alianza Espanola

Adelante, Siempre Adelante! (Onward, Always Onward!) is the motto of the Spanish Club, which for the second year has promoted interest in the customs and language of our Spanish-speaking neighbors. At their monthly meetings members delved into the culture of the modern countries of Latin America by observing Pan-American Day, corresponding with students living in these foreign lands, and learning Spanish dances. To encourage school spirit and to earn extra money, the club members sold tags for the Libbey-Scott football game, using the Spanish slogan "Bata Los Bulldogs!" At their Christmas party they enjoyed Spanish food and studied South American Yuletide celebrations which included breaking the pinata and singing carols. Assisted by their capable advisers, Miss Leitner and Mrs. Schering, the club enjoyed many interesting and educational programs, which included the showing of slides of Spanish lands.

Der Deutsche Verein

Definitely one of the most active of the newly formed organizations at Libbey is the German Club. Proudly displaying their striking emblem, the eagle of the German Republic, and the club colors, black, gold, and red, the members of Der Deutsche Verein enthusiastically studied the German people and their culture. In addition, they sought opportunities to hear and use the German language.

The club's service projects were highlighted by a very successful faculty kaffeeklatsch, at which the members wore German costumes and served German food. Other social activities included a skating party, a German movie, a splash party, and a picnic. Led by their energetic adviser, Mr. Adolph Stadel, the members proved that their club was a good example of its own motto, Was du machst, das nicht schlecht (Anything worth doing is worth doing well).

Choir

Throughout the year seventy students have melodiously blended their voices to form the Libbey Choir; their anthems have lent a peaceful and reverent atmosphere to our Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Lenten services. In December, they presented in a distinguished performance a Christmas radio broadcast. In February, our choir, under the guidance of their resourceful director, Mr. McClure, proudly combined efforts with the other high schools in the scintillating Spring Music Festival at the Toledo Peristyle. There, in an excellent performance, they exemplified their true purpose, the desire to sing together harmoniously. In April the choir gave another radio broadcast and joined with the band and orchestra to render a melodic program. Singing at Baccalaureate and Commencement, the choir presented its last golden "moment to remember," a fervent rendition of "The Blue and Gold."

Band

Loyally playing "The Blue and Gold" as they proudly marched down the field, this year, as always, the Libbey band inspired the school spirit of both the students and the football team. The pulse of every Libbeyite quickened as he saw our band, resplendent in their colorful uniforms, performing at halftime on the football field.
Beginning the busy year with a picnic held at East Harbor in September, the band engaged in its customary activities of a successful tag day and a delicious bake sale, the proceeds of which were used to help purchase uniforms and awards. Under the masterful baton of Mr. Grabill, the band upheld its fine reputation as a musical group during its resounding but inspiring concerts in February and May. Surely everyone will agree that the band members have once again proved their superiority in the field of music. May they ever march onward in service to Libbey!

Orchestra

This year the Orchestra, under the able leadership of Mr. Grabill, demonstrated its skill in noteworthy performances at Open House, Freshman Day, and at both a winter and a spring concert. Many of its members also played in the all-city youth orchestra. To prove that pleasure accompanies the study of music, the Orchestra planned a very enjoyable hayride and picnic. The senior members lament their departure but feel confident that the underclassmen will continue to uphold their fine tradition by providing Libbey with beautiful music.

All this year the diligent workers in the Activities office, under the experienced hand of Mr. Martin, were capably engaged in many duties which are requisite to the smooth running of Libbey. To fulfill their purpose, "to promote interest and participation in school events throughout the year," these students worked assiduously at such tasks as manning the stationer' desk, selling the Crystal, handling all sports and activities tickets, and distributing the Edelian.

With never-ending loyaity the coaches have made outstanding efforts to promote the name and fame of Libbey High School. While achieving this goal, they have endeavored to instill in the players ideals of good sportsmanship, superior character, and high morals. When we honor our teams, we are in reality giving credit to the coaches who have done so much toward building the success of Libbey. They convey to their teams and the entire student body the belief that action must be wholehearted and success must be earned.

For each coach the moment of glory comes, not with cheers or victories, but with the realization that he has helped to mold outstanding citizens and leaders of the future. These coaches well deserve a place in our memories. As seniors, we shall never forget the coaches and teams for whom we cheered. When we pass through that stadium gate again, we will surely remember the times we cheered Libbey to victory; when we enter the field house once more, the loud, lively, happy cheers will recall to our hearts memories of our carefree days at Libbey. For ever upholding the traditions of Libbey's excellence, the entire student body wishes to say in all sincerity, "Thanks, Coach!"

With a spirit of "Go! Fight! Win!" Libbey has again achieved prominence and respect in all branches of athletics. Congratulations are due to all our teams and their coaches. The cross country, track, and golf teams all attained success this year by winning a championship trophy for Libbey; and all loyal Libbeyites celebrated a joyous Thanksgiving dinner after seeing Libbey's football team sparkle to a tie with DeVilbiss. The basketball team gave us many thrills and pleasures right up to the final second of the last game. Our wrestling, tennis, and baseball teams also made their presence felt among their opponents and concluded a highly successful season.

Each member of our teams has known the warm happy sensation of scoring a victory. We wish to thank them for giving us that same feeling, one of pride and of joy. Through the cooperation of the teams, the faculty, and a loyal student body, we have remained as one, with a single purpose in mind—"Libbey win, Libbey lose, Libbey always."

Is she willing to be "guinea-pig" for Mrs. Tanner's nurses aides?

Can you spot your favorite counselor among the faces of their thoughtful helpers?

Who would believe that these charming girls were responsible for all those difficult mimeographed tests you took this year?

A look of friendliness and alertness is pictured on the countenances of our pretty library aides.

With all the tickets sold and all the programs ended, Mr. Needles' helpers can look back on an exciting year.

As these resourceful girls can attest, running the main office is not a simple job.

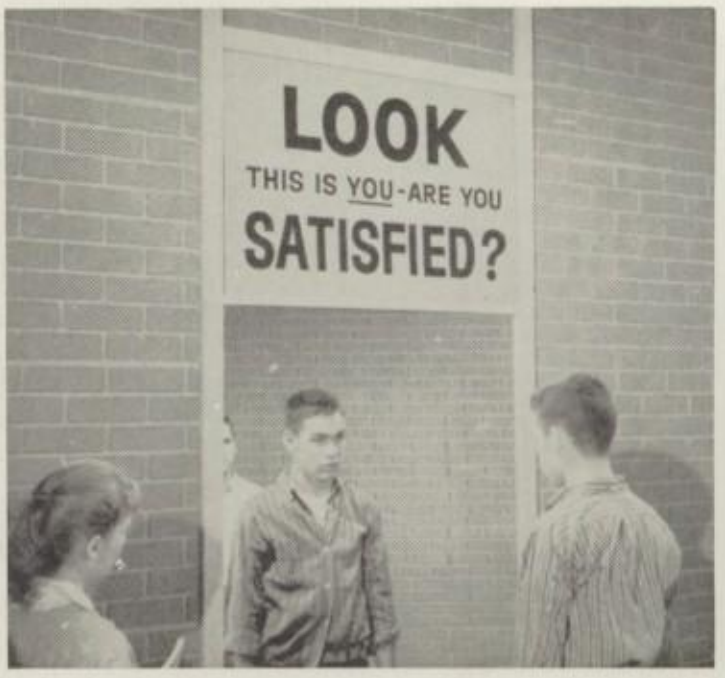
ARE YOU SATISFIED?

Grownups know that personal grooming is important if you want to "get ahead". Teenagers sometimes forget to look at themselves objectively.

So that boys and girls could see themselves as others see them, a full-length mirror was installed in the main corridor of a high school in Buffalo, N. Y.

Boys checked shirttails and trouser lengths—even started wearing coats and ties. Girls stopped to tuck in blouses or rearrange their hair. Renewed pride came to this school—all because of a mirror!



A mirror is a "must" at school . . . at home . . . anywhere. Always check your appearance before going out. It's a good habit to form and others will notice.

When you buy a mirror, be sure it's made of L·O·F Parallel-O-Plate® glass, twin-ground for truer reflections and more freedom from distortion. You'll find a wide selection at your furniture, glass or department store.

Autographs

The printing press has here revealed
Sports and fun and friendships sealed.
The drying ink, which forms each line,
Secures these hours in the March of Time,
Golden hours of work and pleasure,
Memories we will always treasure.
